

The Basics & Beyond Equine Driving Clinic has been awarded two grants! Thank you to Wisconsin Horse Council and American Driving Society / Hoopes-Addis Education Trust

We are now able to offer to ALL Junior Drivers a 'buy one, get one FREE' lesson (those that have paid in advance will be refunded at the event). We are also able to offer NEW Adult Drivers discounted lessons as well, limited availability (email nanelson@frontier.com or call 608 494 0220 to take advantage of this offer).

DON'T FORGET - we will have 2 lesson horses available if you're unable to bring your own - Gus is a Fjord (owned/shown by Mallory Gorman and provided for lessons given by Mary Ruth Marks) and Cracker is a Dutch Harness & Percheron X (owned/shown and used for lessons given by Deb Sauer).

REGISTER TODAY! There is still time to pick your favored clinician ready to share his/her horsemanship and advanced driving skills. You won't find a more impressive array of talent available to you in one location - 5 very experienced, top level clinicians working concurrently in different arenas - Julie Dahlberg, Wes Licht, Mary Ruth Marks, Deb Sauer & Joe Yoder!

MISSY PATCHEN will be on site at the B&B Clinic - specializing in the wellness of driving horses using trigger point Equine Sports Massage Therapy, MagnaWave PEMF, Red Light Therapy, Cold Laser, Myofascial Release, Stretching, and Cupping. Fees are arranged on site with Missy at Optimum Equine Performance.

FOR SALE OR TRADE - we'd like to offer an opportunity to bring your used tack/show driving clothes/hats and even driving vehicles to the event to sell or trade - you can always buy if you don't have anything to sell - make flyers or posters if you'd like and we'll display them. Mark or tag any items you bring with your desired resale price and include your name/cell phone number so folks can contact you directly while at the event.

SATURDAY NIGHT SOCIAL - we're hoping you can join us after the day's lessons for a Pizza Party on the grounds. Pizza and soft drinks will be provided - feel free to bring your own beverages as well.
